

Opposed but not Overcome

Matthew 2

The Kingdom of God will always be opposed but it will never be overcome.

What are we supposed to with that?

1. Personal Response

- Resist Him
- Indifferent to Him
- Those who really believe it

2. Personal Hope

- Life is full of suffering

COMMUNITY GROUP QUESTIONS

Please Note: If you are interested in getting involved in a Crossroads Community Group, please visit www.crossroadschurchaustin.com and choose Get Connected.

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or Community Group.

1. Spend a few moments sharing what the Holy Spirit impressed upon your heart while listening and thinking about Sunday's sermon? What will you do about it?
2. What are you currently suffering through right now? If nothing now, what has been your greatest cause of suffering in your life? How did you explain it? How do you or did you cope through the season?
3. What does it mean to respond to suffering/opposition with belief and with hope?
4. What scripture comes to mind that would offer hope in times of great suffering and pain?
5. Spend time listening to those who are hurting right now and then pray for their situations.
