Mark 12:13-17

Jesus is confronted by the _____ of his time.

Jesus engages the controversy by pointing to a _____.

1. You have more _____ than you think.
2. You have _____, but _____.
3. Jesus isn't about a _____, but a different kingdom entirely.

God is Absolutely Sovereign. (Daniel 4:17)

Community Group Questions

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Have you had a conflict with someone this year over the presidential election? How did it happen and what have you learned from it?
2. As you evaluate the political trap set for Jesus in Mark 12:13-17, what are some traps we fall into when engaging in political discussions?
3. Jesus said, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." What duties do we have to our government and what do we have to our God?
4. What makes Jesus different from all other political kings and leaders? How can we incorporate him into our political discussions?
