Community Group Questions

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What are some key moments in your story that have impacted your life?
2. How have you seen God connect your story to His bigger story?
3. What is a time in your life where you encountered the greatness of God and you KNEW it and were overwhelmed by it?
4. Read Matthew 28:19-20. How are you currently living out the Great Commission in your life?
5. Why is the urgency of the gospel lost with most of us, most of the time?
6. Do you agree with the statement "Missions exists because worship doesn't". Why or why not?
7. When you see there are over 3 billion unreached people - why are there not more missionaries?
8. What role is God telling you to play in this season of your life? (GO or SEND) What steps do you need to take to fill that role?
9. What scares you the most about mission work? What excites you the most? What, if anything, is preventing you from going on a short term trip?
10. For your story going forward, how can you stay connected to God's global purposes to have His gospel declared to every tribe, tongue and nation?
