2. What is your relationship like with your mother? Why so? What are you most grateful for when you think of your mom? What do you grieve that you did not experience? Do you need to take any ownership?
3. How are you as a mom? As you take inventory of your life and role, where do you need to grow? In what area(s) do you need to grow as you look at the example of the Godly woman in Proverbs 31?
4. What does it mean to fear the Lord? What implication should that look have in all of our lives whether we are single, married, male, female, mother or not?
5. Take some time to reflect on your relationship with your mother and write out your thoughts. Take a moment this week to express your gratitude for your mom, even if they have died or the relationship is currently severed. If appropriate, mail them what you wrote.
